were expected to be approximately £100k per year. JR added that very positive feedback on the new office had been received from the team.

JM asked whether there would be any further input from ReLondon into the investment funds. JR confirmed that there was £95k that could be called on by Circularity Capital, but this has been planned for.

JM requested that a formal reserves policy be developed for consideration and approval by the Committee, and that whether investment returns should be considered as income or direct contributions to reserves should be included.

Q3 narrative to December 2023

Income

Invoiced income for waste and recycling consultancy has almost hit ytd budget but current contracts will see a final year end income figure of c£70k.The team are now at full capacity to the end of the year and we do not expect income to grow any further.

Circular economy consultancy income is invoiced at £33k but contracts are in place and being delivered for c£100k that will be received in this financial year.

There has been no new income in sponsorship or campaigns in the last quarter. Despite interest from a number of corporate organisations (Suez, Cory, Decathlon) we were unable to secure sponsorship for Repair Week. As a reminder, £45k was secured for Eat Like A Londoner from Google and so sits within the Campaigns line rather than sponsorship. The comms team are now focused on signing boroughs up for continuation of the Eat Like a Londoner campaign after April 2024.

Further grant funding from the following sources has been secured:

- Carbon Neutral Cities Alliance: £85k for circular neighbourhoods work
- Engineering and Physical Sciences Research Council (EPSRC): £500k over five years for BuildZero project.
- Ramboll Foundation: £52k for Circular Construction in Cities
- GLA: £I20k for waste data and circular economy metrics work

It is expected that upto \pounds 45k will be recognised in this financial year, c \pounds 3l5k in next financial year and the remainder in subsequent years.

There have been changes to the UKSPF expenditure profile which reduces the grant reclaim in the financial year, this does not impact the bottom line significantly.

The rise of UK interest rates have provided some additional income for ReLondon and the re-forecasted income target reflects this.

Expenditure

With the exception of the Core Business Transformation and Sector Support programme, all other expenditure lines are slightly lower than budget and we expect some of these to translate into actual savings on the year end.

The Local Authority Support Team expect to make savings of around £80k on year end from consultants and other project related costs in the year.

CIRCUIT, ERDF and Food Wave projects closed this year and all grant monies available to ReLondon have been claimed. The new UKSPF grant is now the primary funding source for the team, expenditure is behind budget due to delays in the dissemination of grants, this is reflected in the grants income and has minimum impact on the bottom line.

Communications YTD expenditure is below budget as a result of vacancies in the team and whilst this will reduce by the end of the financial year, there will be savings realised.

The savings from the office move were factored into the budget at the start of the year but we expect to save a further $\pounds 40k$ through efficiencies with office costs and professional fees.

Year end position

Despite the unbudgeted investment draw downs of ± 373 k the current year end cash position is ± 3.2 m broadly inline with our original budget position.

6. Reserves policy and GLIF

Reserves policy: for approval

In response to ReLondon's reducing reserves it has been requested that a reserves policy is put in place.

A reserves policy defines the amount of cash that an organisation will maintain in order to remain a going concern. Traditionally small charities and not for profits use three months operating costs as a guide for their level of reserves as this is generally the amount of time it would take to wind up the organisation, (notice periods on contracts, leases etc), special dispensation should be made for other liabilities such as delivery of service contracts

ReLondon does not currently have commitments beyond three months but given it is not yet achieving a balanced annual P&L and is not into the rhythm of continual fundraising and delivery cycles it would be more prudent to set the minimum reserves level at six months operating costs, this is currently c£2m.

For approval: Set reserves policy at £2m

Greater London Investment Fund: for information

Preparations are underway for the transfer of ReLondon's interest in the GLIF to the GLA and the early release of our guaranteed capital of £5.6m. It is expected that this will be a simple novation without need for time consuming or expensive legal document to be drawn up. However Funding London are also going through the process of replacing the EIB investment in the fund and wish to wrap the two changes up in one process, as such it is expected that this will not occur until the end of this financial year.

It should be noted that the investment currently sits in the balance sheet under 'Fixed Assets' at £7m, following the novation this will be removed and an addition of £5.6m made to 'Total cash at bank and in hand', £1.4m must be shown as a realised loss and will need to be shown on the profit and loss account. We will discuss with auditors to ensure this is recognised as an exceptional loss and communicated effectively.

The final sign offs for the transfer have been delegated to the CEO in consultation with the Chair and Audit Committee Chair.

7. Transition plan and headline budget 2024/25

Below are two models of financial plan for next five years for discussion.

Model A: stretching but possible model that is focused on restricting spending from reserves to £1.5m in 2024/25 and then reducing over five years to zero to hit a financially sustainable model by 2029. Reserves would be c£3m above policy level in 2029

Closing balance at 31 March	£7.2m	£6m	£5.2m	£4.9m	£4.9m

Model B: Focus is on generating income to cover business support and campaigns work, using reserves to continue to fund Local Authority Support until the reserves limit is reached. Reserves would dip below policy level by end of 2029.

	2024/25	2025/26	2026/27	2027/28	2028/29

At this early stage in ReLondon's income generating strategy there are no guarantees of success, by agreeing on the 'guard rails' on spending from reserves, the focus will be on flexing expenditure in line with income to ensure net spend limits are not exceeded.

Implications

I. Income generation

Currently there is £1.66m confirmed funding. This budget would require a further £1.08m of additional income plus any associated project delivery costs. Breakdown:

- £180k commercial income seems achievable
- £400k bank interest income modelled at 5% on £8m (no investments income assumed)
- £250k to pay for the Eat Like a Londoner Campaign (campaign to be scaled down if target not reached)
- £250k additional income through grants, partnerships or other funding sources for existing costs (salaries / overheads) could be a challenge

2. Delivery / expenditure

- Staffing costs cover permanent contracts and extensions to deliver existing project commitments.
- Project costs cover existing commitments under grant and contract liabilities plus we have included costs for 'core services delivery' only as detailed in table below, discretionary spend is extremely tight.
- Any activity in addition to this would only be completed if the costs can be covered by an additional funding source.

8. HR Update

Since the last meeting of the Committee on 15 November 2023, the following staff changes have occurred: Starters: Communications and Campaigns Assistant Leavers: None.

9. Review of governance documentation

The London Waste and Recycling Board Order (2008) allows that ReLondon may determine its own procedures, establish any committees it wishes and delegate its functions to any Board member, committee or employee it chooses. To these ends, the Board has an approved set of Standing Orders and a Scheme of Delegated Authority (SODA) and currently has one committee (the Audit Committee).

The Audit Committee's Terms of Reference include the responsibilities:

- To review annually the Terms of Reference of any committees of the Board;
- To review the Board's governance arrangements, to include the Board's Standing Orders.

Governance arrangements were last formally reviewed by the Audit Committee in December 2022, when some minor amendments were made.

Copies of the current Standing Orders, Audit Committee Terms of Reference and Scheme of Delegated Authority are attached for information. We have reviewed these documents and make the following recommendations. Any changes to these governance documents require approval by the Board, following review by the Committee.

Audit Committee Quorum

The Audit Committee Terms of Reference stipulate that the quorum is three members. Now that the number of places on the committee has increased from five to seven, we recommend that the quorum is increased to four or one third of the members whichever is the largest. This will bring it in line with the standard committee quorum as set out in the Standing Orders.

Scheme of Delegated Authority (SODA)

The current SODA needs to be updated to reflect changes in ReLondon structure and operations. For example, a section needs to be added making explicit who has authority to approve bids for commercial contracts. The approval limits in the SODA have not been generally updated since it was first established in 2008 and are outdated.

For information: A revised SODA will be prepared for review at the next meeting of the Committee and subsequent approval by the Board.
